Case No. 4:20-cv-02679-HSG

ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION AND
ORDER DENYING TO CHANGE DEADLINE
FOR FILING MOTION FOR SUMMARY
JUDGMENT

Judge: Hon. Haywood S. Gilliam, Jr.

MMA Complaint Filed: April 17, 2020
Trial Date: TBD

1. On February 11, 2021, Defendant Teros Advisors, LLC's filed its Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. Teros set that motion for the earliest possible date on the Court's Calendar, June 3, 2021.

2. The court heard Defendant's motion on June 3, 2021. The Court appeared to indicate that it intended to grant Defendant judgment as to part or all of Plaintiff's Complaint.

3. The court has not yet ruled on the motion for judgment on the pleadings.

4. The last day to file motions for summary judgment is currently set for July 8, 2021.

5. Defendant respectfully requests that the Court change the dispositive motion filing deadline to thirty (30) days after the Court rules on Defendant's motion for Judgment on the Pleadings, which was heard on June 3, 2021.

6. Defendant has not previously asked the Court to change this deadline.

7. This change is necessary because Defendant is unable to frame its motion for summary judgment in such a way as to avoid unnecessary pleading and argument.

8. Changing the dispositive motion cut-off will not affect any other deadlines in this case, as the pre-trial conference is not set until November 2, 2021.

9. The opposing side has not agreed. I tried to obtain the opposing party's agreement to this change.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the above statements are true and correct.

Dated: July 2, 2021

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/Lawrence Hecimovich
